Donald and Patricia Pritchard Scholarship Scholarship Guidelines

Background

The scholarship is named for Donald and Patricia Pritchard who have strong ties to DeKalb County even though life and work have led them to live in several other states. Don was born and raised in DeKalb County on a dairy and grain farm. Patricia grew up on a small farm in Ohio, caring for animals and learning to appreciate the country life. They dedicated their careers to working in the field of animal sciences and agriculture.

Both Don and Patricia know the value of a college education, having worked in various capacities in the university system. They know, because of their experiences with many students over the years, how education can contribute to a successful future.

The purpose of the Donald and Patricia Pritchard Scholarship is to benefit a high school senior in DeKalb County who plans to attend the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, Consumer, and Environmental Sciences (ACES).
